

Federal Poverty Level Table, 2012

The table below shows the annual and monthly gross income for families at the federal poverty level (100% column) in 2012. It also indicates the amount of income that families may earn and still qualify for various public assistance programs in Montana. Either federal law or state law or administrative rules sets eligibility standards for some of those programs at the following poverty levels:

- 33%: Medicaid for single, non-disabled adults with children
- 100%: Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, or SNAP
- 130%: Free meals at schools
- 133%: Medicaid for children up to 18 years of age
- 150%: Free meals at day care and Head Start programs
- 150%: Medicaid for pregnant women
- 185%: Reduced-price school meals
- 185%: Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)
- 250%: Healthy Montana Kids Plan
- 250%: Medicaid for workers with disabilities
